When we collect information from you in the credit application process, we use that information in a number of ways to assess your credit application and to source a suitable credit provider or lessor and/or insurance provider.

We may:

- Disclose your identification information to a CRB and in some cases obtain a credit report;

- Disclose your personal information to an insurer or insurers to source any insurances you wish to obtain;

We may submit your application to one or more credit providers. Those credit providers and their website addresses are set out in the Schedule 1 at the end of this document.

A credit provider, to whom we submit an application, may disclose information about you to, and collect information about you from, from one or more CRBs. Credit providers may also engage directly with a CRB to make a credit enquiry and you can ascertain the details on this and how they handle personal and credit information via their websites which are listed in our Schedule 1 – Credit Providers.

The websites also describe your key rights. This detail may be described on the credit providers' websites as 'notifiable matters', 'privacy policy', 'credit reporting policy' or 'privacy disclosure statement and consent', or similar.

For each CRB the website details will include the following specific information:

- That, if you become overdue in making credit payments or you commit a serious credit infringement, the credit provider may disclose that information to a CRB

- How you can obtain the credit provider's and/or CRB's policies about managing your credit information;
- Your right to access and/or correct information held about you and to complain about conduct that may breach the privacy and credit reporting laws;
- Your right to request a CRB not to undertake pre-screening for purposes of direct marketing by a credit provider; and
- Your right to request a CRB not to release information about you if you believe you are a victim of fraud.

Credit providers may provide your personal information (including information about your driver licence or passport) to an organisation providing verification of your identity, (including credit reporting bodies), to request an assessment of whether the information matches information held by the issuer of the identification document via the use of third-party systems (this may also include electronic identity verification). Alternative means of verifying your identity may be available.

This detail will also be included by the credit provider who approves your application in the privacy disclosure statement and consent document it will provide to you.

Each credit provider website includes information on how to contact the credit provider and how to obtain a copy of its privacy documents in a form that suits you (e.g. hardcopy or email).
